

Selected by Library Journal as one of the "50 Best Reference Sources of the Millennium."

Each ten-volume series:

Africa
South America, Mexico,
Central America, and the Caribbean
The United States and Canada
Southeast Asia
South Asia:
The Indian Subcontinent
The Middle East
East Asia: China, Japan, and Korea
Europe
Australia and the Pacific Islands
The World's Music: General
Perspectives and Reference Tools

PRINTED IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

ISBN 0-8240-6042-3

The Garland Encyclopedia of World Music is the first comprehensive reference collection devoted to the music of all the world's peoples. Each of the first nine volumes is a multidisciplinary survey of the background, concepts, processes, and sounds of a single region. Leading experts and researchers have written articles specially for this groundbreaking series, which is fully illustrated with photographs, maps, charts, music notation, and audio examples.

PRaise FROM USERS OF OTHER VOLUMES IN THIS SERIES:

"For those who want to explore the mystery of the music cultures of the world, The Garland Encyclopedia of World Music is a treat and a must have."
—Mickey Hart, Musician and Author

"It is gratifying to find a serious and scholarly publication that tries to let everybody in. The Garland Encyclopedia of World Music opens new doors for the listeners of the twenty-first century."
—Bess Lomax Hawes, former Director of the Folk and Traditional Arts Program, The National Endowment for the Arts

"Makes the connections between music and the societies that produce it as important to serious music enthusiasts as the Oxford English Dictionary is to serious linguists."
—Ben Ratliff, The New York Times

"Extraordinary."
—Library Journal

"An excellent resource for anyone interested in learning more about music and its role in world culture and the exchange of artistic expression."
—Arthur Mitchell, President/Artistic Director, Dance Theatre of Harlem

"A unique resource for anyone interested in music and its place in different cultures. . . . A remarkable achievement!"
—Lila Abu-Lughod, Associate Professor of Anthropology, New York University

"Long overdue! A great resource for teaching and research in many fields."
—Elizabeth Warnock Fernea, Professor of English and Middle Eastern Studies, University of Texas at Austin

"Fascinating, informative presentation."
—Booklist/Reference Books Bulletin

"Essential for all levels of research and interest."
—Choice

WELSON
ARCUS
NOLDS

The Middle East

The Middle East

